

8 Ball Emergency Fund for Journalists

www.8BallJournalists.org

EMERGENCY GRANT APPLICATION

The 8 Ball Emergency Fund for Journalists is committed to helping Southern California journalists and photojournalists in need. We provide grants to broadcast, online, and print journalists who are currently working or have recently worked in Los Angeles, Orange, San Bernardino, Riverside and Ventura Counties and now find themselves behind the eight-ball, having a hard time covering food, rent, medical and other essential expenses.

Please complete this two page form on your computer. Save the completed form with a different file name. Then attach your form to an e-mail and send it to: RobertaWax@gmail.com
The information you submit remains confidential.

Name

Date

Street Address

City

Zip

Home Phone

Cell

Email

News Affiliation

What is/was your title/job description?

How many years have you worked in journalism?

List the media organizations that employed you (or used written or photographic material you produced) during the past 10 years.

Do you rent or own?

Are payments current?

If you are employed, what is your monthly salary?

If not currently employed, who was your last employer, how long did you work there, and what was your salary?

Do you have any funds in a bank, savings, IRA or any other account? Please list.

Do you get any support from spouse, partner, family, friends or other sources?

Have you applied for unemployment, disability, workers' compensation or financial aid from any other sources, GoFundMe, etc? If so, please note where you have applied, amount requested, how much was received, etc.

Amount of aid requested

Detail how you intend to use the money you applied for if granted. Please itemize.

Are there any other details the 8 Ball Emergency Fund for Journalists should consider?

How did you hear about the 8 Ball Emergency Fund for Journalists?

Please sign below and e-mail your completed application to RobertaWax@gmail.com

Date